

Privacy Policy of the Non-Profit Support Association of the German International School Accra

The Non-Profit Support Association of the German International School Accra processes personal data of its members.

Responsibility

The Board of Directors is responsible for data processing. Names and contact details are visible on the website www.gis-accra.org/Förderverein.

Purpose and duration of data storage

The stored data is used for membership administration. The legal basis for this data processing is Art. 6 para. 1b DSGVO*. The data will be deleted upon termination of membership. Personal data relating to cash management will be stored for up to 10 years from the date of withdrawal in accordance with tax regulations.

Publication of data

In order to present the association and the life of the association, we publish photos and names on the website www.gis-accra.org. The member agrees to this agreement in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1f DSGVO*. Consent can be revoked at any time.

Right to information

Every member of the association has the right to receive information about his stored data, to have it corrected or deleted.

Right of appeal

The member has the right to complain to the supervisory authority (State Data Protection Commissioner of the State of Baden-Württemberg) in the event of violations of data protection regulations in the processing of his or her personal data.

16.02.2025

*Datenschutzgrundverordnung (DSGVO) is a German regulation for General Data Protection.